

Gloucestershire Local History Association

Local History Day

Saturday 18th March 2017

at Churchdown Community Centre

Parton Road, Churchdown, Gloucester, GL3 2JH

10.30am - 4.00pm

Gardens for Food, Fun and Flowers

Admission Free

Programme of speakers and displays from Local History Societies

Morning Talk

Dr Jan Broadway - Florists' Feasts and after: the history of gardening societies in Gloucestershire.

Afternoon Talks

Dr Jeremy Burchardt - Gloucestershire's place in the early allotment movement.

Michael Brown 'The Historic Gardener' – Ghastly Gardening: Horticulture's Horrible History.

Tea, coffee, sandwiches and cakes available during the day

See www.gloshistory.org.uk

for further information

The GLHA Local History Day is sponsored by the Midcounties Co-operative Community Fund through the Gloucestershire Community Foundation