

NAILSWORTH SOCIETY RAMBLING GROUP

THURSDAY 27th APRIL 2017

Meet outside Nailsworth Library for a 9.30am departure.
Lifts available.

BROOKEND - PURTON - SHARPNESS

We will drive to the Lammastide Inn, Brookend, (GL13 9SF) from where we will begin our 5½ mile ramble. Good views of the Severn as we descend into Purton, where we will visit the little Church of St. John. Then we take the towpath alongside the canal, with a detour to see the Purton Hulks on the riverbank and the sight of the old Severn Railway bridge.

Leaving the canal by the Marina at Sharpness, we make our way back across bridges and fields.

Easy walking with just a couple of inclines, and about 12 stiles.

Lunch at The Lammastide Inn.

We can order food before we start off on our walk, but they require numbers so please advise Angela on 832911 if you are coming.

£1 per walker

Sorry, no dogs.
