welcomes

GILLIAN KEIGHTLEY

Monday 5th March at 7.30pm in the Mortimer Room, off the library

Gillian is an accomplished local artist whose fascinating work covers a wide range of subject matter including landscape, people, civilisation, war, mythology and religion, and sport.

Gillian trained at Gloucestershire College of Art, Goldsmiths and the Royal College of Art. She will show us work from her long career and tell us about the things that have influenced her while working at home and abroad.

Members £2, visitors £5.

Refreshments included.
