

NAILSWORTH SOCIETY: ARTS, CRAFTS AND MUSIC & GARDENING GROUPS

Summer outing on Monday 18th June to:

Waterperry Gardens, Museum of Rural Life and Contemporary Art and Crafts Gallery

Near Wheatley, Oxford

Until 1971, Beatrix Havergal's School of Horticulture for Ladies, but now 8 acres of beautifully landscaped ornamental gardens. Also, a Museum of Rural life, a church considered an architectural gem with stained glass from 1220, the Art in Action gallery, a plant centre, a shop and a café.

Travel by Coach. Cost: to include coach and entry fees £25 for garden and museum. £29 if you wish to have a guided tour of the frescoes in the house.

Please pay by May 31st either at the garden group meeting on May 21st, by cheque made out to Nailsworth Gardening group and sent to Marjorie Condie at Springmount House, Inchbrook, Nailsworth, GL6 0NR or by internet payment Account no: 01949674, sort code 30-98-29 stating your name. After paying online please email Marjorie to let her know at: marjorie.condie@outlook.com