

NAILSWORTH SOCIETY: ARTS, CRAFTS AND MUSIC GROUP

Monday 7th October at 7.30 pm in The Mortimer Room, off the library

Andrew Davidson

Illustrator, print maker, engraver and designer

Andrew Davidson is a highly talented local artist whose work includes traditional engraving printing methods, wood block prints and gouache paintings. The processes used require a very high degree of craftsmanship and a huge amount of time. He has managed to produce a vast array of work in his career, including prints, book jackets and illustrations, posters, stamp designs, logos and architectural designs. Andrew will introduce us to some of his works and working methods.

Admission £2 for members, £5 for visitors.
