REDLERS OF STROUD

by Keith Walker

Built on the site of the 12th Century Dudbridge Mill, Redlers finally closed in August 2015 after about 100 years of production, having become one of Stroud's most important employers. The company specialised in weighing and metering systems and design and manufacture of equipment including conveyors.

After closure, the section alongside the River Frome was converted into luxury apartments:

Members wishing to take part should contact me by Sunday mid-day (Sept 26th) if at all possible so that log-in details for Zoom can be sent out in advance:
