ABROAD SKETCH

with Maxine Relton

Take a visual journey with local artist Maxine Relton on her freehand travels through Europe, India and Japan: a chance to browse through original sketchbooks and hear just where a paintbrush can land you!

An evening of entertaining travel tales accompanying this visual presentation in which Maxine whisks us through cultural contrasts and unusual encounters captured in her rapid sketches. There will also be an opportunity to browse through a selection of her original sketchbooks.

Maxine trained originally in London as a sculptor and printmaker and now works across many disciplines, including painting, photography, printmaking and poetry. A permanent 3-storey gallery of her work in Horsley can be visited any time by arrangement. She is an elected member of the Royal West of England Academy, exhibits widely, runs art courses at home and abroad and has work in private and public collections, including The Royal Collection.

All welcome! Nailsworth Society members £2. Visitors £5. Refreshments included.
