Cotswolds Arts and Crafts and Folk Music

Martin Graebe

Late in the Victorian era, the Arts and Crafts movement and the revival of interest in folk music both looked back to the simplicity of past ways of life. The cross-currents brought a number of individuals together and this presentation describes how villagers and the arts and crafts community sang and danced together, and how the Cotswolds led the way for the rest of England. The talk is illustrated with pictures and musical examples.

All welcome! Members £2, visitors £5. Refreshments included.
