

The Nailsworth Society

Local Studies and Arts, Crafts and Music Groups

Monday 4th December at 7.30pm in Nailsworth Primary School hall

A Christmas Celebration

Wassail, wassail!

with Stephen Rowley

The tradition of wassailing goes back many centuries. This talk will look at its history and how it relates to Christmas and New Year traditions. You will also be able to see some wassailing artefacts, including the Broad, a representation of a bull, and enjoy some song as well.

All members welcome, bring a friend if you wish. Cost £5, mulled wine and mince pies included. To book a place, please contact Jane by November 30th at janebodkin@hotmail.com or 835554.