Shakespeare's last, and great, play is a triumphant compilation of intrigue, magic, and humour. Prospero, an exiled Duke with supernatural powers, creates a great storm which sees his enemies shipwrecked on his island. Magic abounds, plots are exposed, and a colourful array of characters gain their deserts. Fascinating entertainment.

Tickets cost £15 or £14 for concessions (over 60's or under 16's), please contact Susan Staniforth at susanstaniforth@hotmail.co.uk or ring 07891 436917 to book.
