THE LAST QUENINGTON FRESH AIR SCULPTURE EXHIBITION!

The first open air sculpture exhibition was held in the grounds of The Old Rectory in 1992. Sadly, this year will be the last. As usual, there will be traditional and modern works (130) made from a wide range of materials in the lovely gardens. The Pool House will accommodate smaller items for sale.

There is a café on site. Only food and drink purchased here may be consumed, apart from water. Picnics may take place on the village green around which there is parking.

Standard tickets are £10. Group tickets are £7 but we would need at least 10 people to get this rate.
